SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 .- In the senate, Sherman, from committee on finance, reported the Caucus bill to provide against contraction of currency and for other purposes and it was read twice and placed on the calendar.

In committee the measure was amended in two important particulars at this morning's meeting. The first was the exclusion of section 4 of bill providing that when the national bank circulation falls below $190,000,000 the deficiency shall be supplied by issue of treasury notes based on silver bullion purchases, if silver can be purchased, or if not by direct specie notes.

The second amendment was the insertion in place of section stricken out of the following: that the secretary of the treasury be authorized to issue in sum or sums not exceeding aggregate $200 million coupon and registered bond United States such form as he may prescribe and of denominations $50 or some multiple that sum. Redeemable in lawful money at pleasure of the United States on and after July 1st, 1900 and bearing interest semi annually at the rate of two per cent. per annum.

He is said news of the strike. It gives a column to be a man of considerable means and account and says that over three miles of the been district, indee for many years, the ledge is now located. The President to-day appointed Louis Williams and Edward DeGroff Alaska commissioners and M. A. Fuller and Carl Spuhn Alaska alternate commissfoners to the world's fair.

Crew of a Wrecked Ship Brought in.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 23 .- The American schooner Horace B. Parker arrived at Shelbourne with a woman and the crew of the ship Eurydice from Liverpool for Pensecola. Two passing vessels refused to respond to the Eurydice's sigficuly and the ship sank two hours later.

Indian Capture Confirmed.

Washington, D. C. Dec. 23.—General Schofield has received a message from Gen. Ruger confirming the reported capture of Big Foot and his followers, and the Sitting Bull fugitives in Cherry creek district. The Surrender and disarming of these Indians, Ruger declares practically ends the whole trouble.

Location of the U. S. Dry Dock.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The Pacific Coast dry dock commission in its report, sent to the senate to-day recommending the location of the dry dock at Point Turner, Port Orchard, on Puget Sound.

MORMONS' FOR MEXICO.

Colony of Ten Thousand Going to That Country.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 21 .- A special from Lima, Ohio, says: B. C. Faurot, a wellknown banker of this city, who is president of the Columbus, Lima & Northwestern railroad, and largely interested in a railway enterprise in Mexico, returned home from New York this afternoon and announced the consummation of a deal with John W. Young, the eldest son of the late Brigham Young, whereby the men come into possession of 3,000,000 acres of land which was granted Faurot by the Mexican government three years ago. Negotiations have been in progress some time and were finally closed in New York yesterday. The land is located in the northern part of Mexico.

About three years ago Faurot obtained a valuable grant from the Mexican government including these lands, the stipulation being the construction of a railway extending from Deming, N. M., to Cashilabompa bayou, on the Pacific coast. The Mexican government, in connection with the grant, offers $200 to every family and $50 to every man who locates permanently on this land. Young has 10,000 people, who will colonize on these lands, and it is understood they are all Mormons who reside in Utah.

Iliness and Insomnia Causes a Rich Man to Take His Life.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 21 .- Nicholas T. Armijo, a wealthy citizen, and one of the wealthiest men in the territory, took his life this morning. For several months he has been a sufferer from insomnia and lung trouble, and went to California with Dr. Easterday for his health. He returned home on Wednesday night, but as there was no nal of distress. The crew were taken off about preparing a trip to the eastern condition the doctor set have left this afternoon. This morning and two from the medical staff of the he got up from his bed, and while his hospital, who will pass upon each appli-wife was absent, he went to a bureau, cant. The manager will know the locatook out a 44-caliber Colts revolver and shot himself in the left breast, the bullet passing through his heart. His wife and seven children, two brothers and a sister are left to mourn his loss. He has a son in St. Louis and a son and three daughters at school in Santa Clara and San Jose, California. His wealth is estimated at $500,000.

The Irish Election.

Dublin, Dec. 21.—Timothy Harrington arrived last night in Cork, in company with the mayor of that city. The Parnellites had intended to greet him when he landed from the Aurania in Queenstown, and had arranged for a KILKENNEY, Dec. 23.—Official result of torchlight procession. They missed being Hennesey, nominee of the anti-Parnell- and were very demonstrative, cheering bilts possess laces which rival the Prusing for Healy and other McCarthyites. The anti-Parnellites gathered, meanwhile, and charged upon the Parnellites. There was an ugly scrimmage, which re. sulted in favor of the attacking party. Wooster University, died this morning. The torches of the Harrington admirers were thrown into the water and many persons were hurt. Mr. Harrington says the majority of the Irish in America are supporters of Parnell, although many newspapers and politicians oppose him. Mr. Harrington does not believe made by the latter during the course of that Mr. Parnell will retire, even if the election goes against him.

Parnell Used up.

New York, Dec. 21 .- A Herald's Kilkenny special says: Paruell is a changed man. He is thin in body and haggard in combination with quinine to prevent in face. His beard is unkept, and his its disagreeable head symptoms and for hair is straggling. That his voice is other valuable improvement in its adhusky and almost gone, is not to be wondered at, for he has worked hard of stock of nerve force seems gone also.

Some Complexion Tints. The cold winds of autumn make the following advice very seasonable: Rose water and brandy is recommended for roughness caused by walking or driving in the wind. Another skin tonic is alcohol and water. The white of an egg beaten well, five grams of alum in five grams of sweet almond oil, is said to be a sure remedy for wrinkles. One teaspoonful of carbolic acid in a pint of rose water is an excellent remedy for pimples. Strong tea will darken the eyelashes, we are told, while sage tea makes the hairdark, and cream made by a pint of glycerine and six ounces of lime water will, when rubbed thoroughly into the hair, make it glossy and keep the scalp clean.—New York Jour-nal.

Springfield, Mass., is to have a directory of nurses. The board of registration will consist of two from the trustees tion of every nurse; those unemployed can be reached at short notice, and both the sick and the nurse will be benefited through the convenience of the directory. Mrs. C. A. Nichols is one of the hospital trustees on the board of registration .-

Boston Woman's Journal. The Influence of Reading.

Seventeen years ago Miss Ticknor, of Boston, having been often appealed to to direct the reading of young girls, founded a society to encourage home study. This society, including at first half a dozen names, now has a membership of 524 active students, whose intellectual work is planned and simplified

New York buys more lace than any other city in the world, and there are said to be scores of New York ladies whose collections of lace vary in value from $20,000 to $50,000. The Vandersian and Austrian crown laces and are valued at $500,000. The late Mrs. Astor had a lace dress that cost $15,000, and another was recently sold to an American lady for $25,000.

Miss Rhoda Broughton, the novelist, is entitled to the thanks of her kind, because, though she has written twentytwo novels, she has published but ten. In reward, perhaps, of this stoic virtue she owns a most picturesque and charming home in Oxford, and being a very bright and gracious woman, she is much sought there and enjoys the university tone of social life.

Quinine is robbed of its bitter taste by combining it with sugar of milk and some bicarbonate of soda. Capsicum, ginger or other aromatics are also used ministration.

The badger is by no means unworthy late. More serious is the fact that his of being taken as an emblem: He is a very plucky, persistent little animalnot so industrious as the beaver, perhaps. but capable of a great deal of endurance, and sufficiently brave in his own defense, though ordinarily quiet and inoffensive.
